

Larry H. - Voiceover Actor

Larry is a voiceover actor in Los Angeles with a professional recording studio and has been active in the industry since 2009. He provides his voice daily to a wide variety of voiceover projects including Commercial Ads for radio and TV, Narration on Documentaries and Corporate projects, Political Ads, as well as eLearning/tutorials for corporate web presentation.

He provides a clear concise baritone sound that embodies strength, power and sincerity. His signature sound is relaxed and conversational. Listeners are drawn in by Larry's versatility which enables him to bring light hearted fun to character pieces or deep sincerity to roles of a more solemn nature. The client's needs are always the first priority with Larry. His intention is clear... to bring to the project what is necessary for the client to achieve their vision.
